WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is with great delight that we welcome you to the 2020 KSH International Conference & 61st Annual Meeting, hosted by the Korean Society of Hematology (KSH), in Seoul, Korea, March 12 to 14, 2020.

The Korean Society of Hematology successfully held the second ICKSH last year attracting over 1300 attendees from 41 countries. With the goal of making ICKSH2020 another successful meeting, the Organizing Committee has prepared an exciting and informative congress program providing a unique opportunity to learn about the most recent findings and research from renowned specialists as well as to exchange ideas and information with colleagues for the continued success and progress of our field.

Our programs will include topics such as benign hematologic diseases, various types of hematologic malignancies, coagulation/thrombosis related disorders and transfusion medicine through plenary lectures, as well as scientific and education sessions. In addition, a variety of stimulating social programs has been planned so participants can enjoy the fascinating Korean culture and share our warm spirit of friendship.

We welcome your support and look forward to seeing you at ICKSH 2020 in Seoul, Korea!
